There's Big Trouble in St. Canard

As Darkwing Duck, the "terror that flaps in the night," you have been summoned to the office of J. Gander Hooter, the Chief of SHUSH. He reports that four of St. Canard's most notorious villains, Moliarty, Tuskerninni, Megavolt and SteelBeak, have suddenly united. A secret photo of one of their meetings shows the group studying an oil painting. Are they planning an art theft, or is it something far worse? The criminals have cut the painting into 36 pieces, divided the pieces among themselves, and fled back to their territories. Your mission is to track down these four crooks, recover the missing pieces and reassemble the painting for SHUSH. The Chief believes that this painting will provide a clue to the true intentions of this motley crew. Will their plan be foiled? Will the forces of F.O.W.L. be defeated? Better get "quacking" Darkwing, before it's too late!

Inserting the TurboChip Game Card

- 1 Remove the TurboChip game card from its plastic case.
- 2 Hold the TurboChip game card with the title side up and gently slide it into the Game Card port until you feel a firm click. Do not bend the game card or touch its metal parts as this could erase the program.
- 3 Slide the Control dock Power Switch to the "ON" position. If your game card is not inserted properly, the Power Switch will not move all the way to the right.
- 4 The title screen of Darkwing Duck should appear on your television.

Object of the Game

Proceed through the game collecting the 36 pieces of the painting, while defeating the evil doers. Use the reassembled painting to unravel the mysterious plans of F.O.W.L. Score as many points as you can along the way.

Note: Darkwing Duck is a single-player game.

How to Play

Darkwing Duck is a horizontal (and sometimes vertical) scrolling action game. You control the character "Darkwing Duck" using your TurboPad Controller. Play is based on the "damage" system. Each time you defeat an enemy, you score points.

Number of Tries and Game Over

You begin the game with three or four tries, depending on which mode you're playing. When you run out of continues and lose all of your tries (or defeat Steel Beak in the final stage) the game is over.

Player Health

The health of Darkwing Duck is displayed by a health meter. However, health eggs appear throughout the game and can be collected to restore your health.

Scoring Points

Points are scored by defeating enemies and collecting bonus items. Bonus points are awarded for completing particularly difficult parts of the game.

Reconstruction of the Painting

Throughout the game, it is Darkwing Duck's job to recover each piece of the painting. As Darkwing recovers these pieces, he turns them over to his niece, Gosalyn and the neighborhood genius, Honker Muddletoot. At the end of each stage, Gosalyn and Honker (with your help) try to rearrange the pieces until the entire painting is revealed. Once the painting is completed, an infrared light above the bulletin board begins to glow. This light transforms the painting into a blueprint that reveals the ultimate secret weapon F.O.W.L. has been working on.

Note: In order to complete a level, you must find all the pieces and battle the end boss.

Stages of the Game

Moliarty's Level

(The Underworld of St. Canard)

Constructed from the fantasies of this villainous mole, the Underworld of St. Canard has been transformed into a massive superhighway for Moliarty's mutant Pill Bugs. The size of your average school bus, these Bugs rumble on endlessly. Your job is to defeat an array of bad guys, while exploring the massive underground tunnel. If you're lucky, you'll get a chance to fight Moliarty in his secret underground mole cavern.

Tuskerninni's Level

(The Streets of St. Canard)

This stage consists of steep, building-lined streets and a ramshackle old theatre. Be alert, because skateboarding penguins will roll out and attack your every move! Work your way to the top of the hill and enter a secret catacomb beneath the street. Bursting water pipes, aerial sandbags and out-of-control leaks challenge you at every turn.

Megavolt's Level

(The Roof Tops of St. Canard)

This level takes place upon the brightly colored roof tops of the glass and steel skyscraper, which dominate the city of St. Canard. Jump from platform to platform, eliminating Egg Men and avoiding the electrically charged fingertips of Megavolt. If you make it to the end, you get to battle Megavolt and his electric charger one-on-one!

SteelBeak's Level

(The F.O.W.L. Casino)

Darkwing will chase the evil SteelBeak into the Starduck casino. Once inside, you discover the awful truth—this is a secret factory where F.O.W.L. is manufacturing the ultimate crime weapon. As you climb through the different floors of the factory, you'll fight trash compactors, falling mannequin pieces, Tuskerninni, Moliarty and other weapons of doom. Once you've made it to the top of the building, fight the ultimate boss, F.O.W.L.'s secret weapon.
